DESIGNATION	:	Director, WinWin Consultancy	TIME	:	2.00 – 4.00 pm
PHONE NO	:	9842165063	VENUE	:	Smart Room

KEY POINTS HIGHLIGHTED:

- The necessity for analyzing ourselves.
- How to choose our carrier.
- How to build our strength.

CONCOURSE:

The session concentrated on analyzing self esteem of students to achieve success in their carrier. Students are asked to divide into four divisions, famously called as SWOT (Strength, Weakness, Opportunities and Threats). Analyzing their strength help them to concentrate more on developing it and analyzing their weakness is mandatory to eradicate it and make it as their strength. The opportunities are not only based on their qualification but it's really based on their talents. So listing out all the opportunities helps the students to take better decisions. Everybody should be aware of their threats to get succeeded in their life. These are all the precious information gained through the session.

OUTCOME:

- ✓ Importance of self esteem.
- ✓ Thinking on our glories makes us realize our strength.
- ✓ Grab opportunities based on your talents.

REPORT ON LEADERSHIP TRAINING PROGRAM

Leadership is the capacity to translate vision into reality.

On 7th July 2017, leadership training program was organised and the representative and assistant representative of each class, union office bearers and extended committee members participated in this program. The main objective of this event is to bring out the talents hidden in them and to empower their leadership qualities.

For moulding the young minds Rev.Dr.Godwin Rufus, Vice Principal, Arul Anandar college, was invited as a resource person. To make the program more interesting and for the active participation of the students, the students were made into 12 groups and many exciting games and events were concluded among them.

He started the section with the game “knowing the name and shooting the names”, in order to change the strangers as friend. Then he proceeded the session with harmony through a Song, “Good morning...No inhibition “, to develop the quality of respecting each other. That was followed by a sharing section where the participants shared about their kith and kin which help them to understand the strength and weakness of the team. The students actively participated in the Games. It was an energetic session.

The administrative and management abilities and ideas were brought out by narrating the relevant scenes from the movie “Bhagubali”. The essential qualities of a leader such as making the beginning, building the team, allocating the roles etc., are imparted through events and examples. Thus the session was exploded with flying colours and the students participated actively in all the events. They portray their hidden talents and skills.

Introduction : Dr. S. J. Kala , Associate Professor, The Research Center of English, Fatima College, Madurai.

REPORT

The inauguration of Fatima incubation Centre was held on 20th of September 2017 in the premise of Fatima College to encourage budding entrepreneurs among the students and staff.

Dr. R. Jeyaraman , Member Secretary & Director, centre of entrepreneurship department, Tamilnadu and Dr. P. Uma , Founder & Chairperson of Unique Research & consultancy services inaugurated the programme by unveiling shops to dip in profits as investment plans.

Dr. S.J. Kala , Associate Professor, the Research center of English, Fatima College gave a brief introduction about the goals of initiating the importance of entrepreneurship through organizing shops such as organic beauty parlour, mushroom cultivation centre, horticultural works, textile products, fresh juice shops etc. inside the campus. The venues are allotted by the management along with the initial investments to promote entrepreneurial ecosystem. The Principal, Dr.Sr. G Celine Sahaya Mary and the Secretary of the college. Rev. Dr. Francisca Flora felicitated the programme. The chief guest, Mr. Jeyaraman and Dr. Uma delivered their speech on Incubation , a budding initiative for entrepreneurship. The alumnae of the college also had pitched in this programme to ensure societal economic benefits.

The programme commenced at 11.00 a.m at A2 of Fatima College. Members of the students union, staff of both the shifts and the coordinators of the committees were present on the day of inauguration. Dr. Vidhya , Associate Professor of Computer Science welcomed and introduced the Chief guests, Dr. R. Jeyaraman , Member Secretary & Director, centre of Entrepreneurship department, Tamilnadu and Dr. P. Uma, Founder & Chairperson of Unique Research & consultancy. Dr. Vidhya added that Fatima incubation centre housed up the start ups for event management by Mrs. Jeyalakshmi and Mrs. Dhivya; Beauty parlour by Ms. Dharani , Nutrition Café by Mrs. Akila , Tailoring & boutique by Mrs. Preethi. The staff of Zoology, Ms. Dhevanya , Ms. Thelma and Ms. Vanajothi are involved in skilled training and would be generating revenue from mushroom cultivation, horticulture and apiculture.

Dr. S. J. Kala, Associate Professor, the research center of English gave a brief introduction about the initiative. She presented slides of interpretation about incubation centre. She said that entrepreneurial culture in India was still in an embryonic stage due to lack of resources and dearth of awareness in the environment. Technological and knowledgeable start ups are expected from the educational institutions especially the universities and colleges. These incubation startups would provide a support system which would promote entrepreneurial culture on campus so that they would be widely recognized. She also added that such incubators would serve as economic stimulators and they would also play a key role in playing drivers of innovative challengers. This initiative would identify, train, and enable people to escort business startups.

She also quoted the definition from the National Business Incubation Association that “The business incubator is that much successful which accelerates successfully developed start ups and companies”. She said that the services of network would be offered to people indulged in the initiative. They can make use of these infra structure catering to the needs of the local markets. The college management has initially invested for these small incubators and would eventually generate financial help from the sponsors as well. Dr. Kala highlighted the institution’s connection with the other industries through MOU, internships and workshops and assured that it would lead to the impact of national level. The main objective of this incubation center is to promote value added jobs and services. The incubators, after meeting with the profitable outcome would pay the management the rent of accommodation.

The Secretary, Rev. Sr. Francisca Flora said “The term “entrepreneurial development” goes back to my experience with self help groups” She already had the experience being the part of self help groups in many places of south Tamilnadu. The Secretary said that she and the chief guest, Dr. Jeyaraman had worked for the entrepreneurship in various places like Nagappattnam , Velankanni for more than a decade and they had experienced success in them in uplifting the economically deprived and rural women.

She had encountered examples of many small incubators which turned out into big shops in such places. The government always lends hands to such self help group through banks. She said that the entrepreneurship was linked with the educational institution to boost not only the rural women but also the youth to uplift the capacity for self employment which in fact act as the fundamental point of incubator. She expected the Government and the UGC to collaborate with Fatima in the future for the expansion of such initiatives. She then introduced Dr. R. Jayaraman , the chief guesr as one who insisted her to start the MBA course in Fatima. She had the experience of working with him in entrepreneurship. She eulogized Dr, R. Jeyaraman as the right person for the establishment of incubation centers.

The principal, Dr. Sr. G. Celine Sahaya Mary said that the chief guest Dr.R.,Jayaraman was instrumental in felicitating the program. She said that she also had a spot of experience in her research, she ventured many places , NGOs and learnt the experience of entrepreneurship. She remembered days as a student of the first batch of MBA at Fatima and also the student of Dr. Uma , the chief guest of the event. She congratulated the team and wished them all success.

The Chief guest Dr. R. Jayaraman said that the actual meaning of entrepreneurship was ownership. He quoted some famous business men like Mr. Verguese Curian a successful milk man. He said that only struggle would make the person successful.

He said that product, process and practice could introduce changes; changes for positive impact. He acclaimed people with positive innovation for the initiative. He emphasized on the collective activity and collective wisdom. He then said how parlours turned into a major need for people as presentation of oneself would make people judge the personality. He said, “Presenting oneself is a big art and parlours will be very helpful for people”.

Dr. P. Uma, Founder & Chairperson of Unique Research & consultancy also gave some ideas for the incubators to have a successful outcome. Followed by the vote of thanks, the chief guests opened shops such as beauty parlour, fresh juice shops along with the dignitaries of the college.

“Road Map to a Culture of Self Improvement”

October 9, 2017

Dr. M. Nagarenitha, Assistant Professor, Department of Management Studies, Fatima Institute of Management organized Symposium on the topic “Roadmap to A Culture of Self Improvement” in Sanjose Seminar Hall October 9th 2017.

Mrs. Andresia Michalline was the resource person for the morning session, who is a motivational trainer with experience in training small and large group across educational institution and industry. Vijayadharshini of I MBA gave the Welcome Address.

While speaking about self motivation, she stressed on encouraging and training self. She also stated that, “Success is not key to happiness; happiness is the key to success”. She told that, “Reward yourself stay focused don’t procrastinate and not be fear for failure.” She insisted on the importance of balancing life. She shared the necessity of self control and self discipline.

She told about self improvement, self awareness, self motivation and personality development. She had a view that everyone should know their strength and weakness. While sharing about self motivation she also stated that everyone should be aware of oneself and others.

She concluded that attitude and thought leads to behavior, so an individual must follow his or her own thoughts and do the needful.

In the afternoon session, welcome address given by M.Nirai Fatima I MBA student.

The resource person P.Sharmila an entrepreneur is running a toys manufacturing business Pushpum Toys. She is also a trader and importer of soft toys. The main highlight of the session was on self improvement. She conducted a game developing and identifying the entrepreneurial skills.

She gave different art work materials to five teams. She explained entrepreneurship in a practical manner. Each group was asked to fix the price of the art work. They explained the reason for the price. Team 3 won. She gave reward of toys for appreciating the students.

The basic needs for the entrepreneur communication, leadership, innovation, creativity, current date scenario and capability to solve problems, she also told that “slow and steady win the race”. She also addressed the students that first to focus on aim, then goal plan and the honesty are key tools for successive entrepreneur. Entrepreneur should know the online marketing. Entrepreneur must learn something new, the entrepreneur must know the success and failure of them (ie) iceberg illustration

In this, session student learnt identifying marketing opportunities and develop the entrepreneurial skills.

Positive Change in Women

DATE : 30/11/2017

Time : 10 AM – 12.30 PM.

Venue : Jubilee Hall

On 30/11/2017, we organized a speaker meeting. Rtn. Ramanathan, Secretary, Rotary Madurai West talked about “Change”. The following are the few points from his speech. Nature itself tells us that we have to change according to the situation. Life is all about the movement: the more we move, the more joyful we feel. And it’s true not only about physical movement but also emotional, intellectual. Paradoxically enough, only doing something that breaks with the routine can fill us with vital energy and makes us move forward in life. If we refuse to step beyond the routine and familiar work, our brain will refuse to work, and instead of being flexible we might become stiff and rigid, and, thus, can lose the capacity of making quick decisions under different circumstances and life situations. Thus, it’s quite necessary to make some changes in life, as they will help us feel energized, learn new things, become a better personality and much more.

Chief Guest profile:

Rtn. L. Ramanathan,
Managing Director - Sree Vinayaga Screens.
Bachelors of Engineering degree in Printing and Graphic Communication - Pune

Outcome: Change is an inevitable part of life. It happens whether we're ready or not. One of the secrets of living successfully is to learn to handle the changes we find coming our way. Students made a pledge that they will change their life routine, habits and behavior to be a better person in the world.
