Free Legal Aid Services and Women's Rights

Human Rights Cell of Fatima College in Collaboration with Madurai District Legal Services Authority organised one-day awareness campaign on Free Legal Aid Services and Women's Rights. The session was taken over by Secretary Sub-judge of District Legal Services Authority, Mr. T. Panneer Selvam and Senior Panel Advocate, Mr. P. Uma Shankar.

Mr. T. Panneer Selvam highlighted the importance of laws to maintain a rational society. He said that the common sense ideals that are sanctioned by the government turn into laws.

He said that laws are applicable right from the birth of a child and extends even after the death. Prenatal determination of the sex of a baby is a punishable offense, even the use of symbols or actions to convey whether the baby is a male or female is considered a crime. "After birth of a child, it is mandatory to register its birth in the Village Administrative Office. If we fail to register, we have another option to do it later in the Taluk Office", he added.

He emphasised on Educational Rights such as Free and Compulsory Education for children under 14 years, 25% seats for poor children under Right To Education Act, Anti-ragging, Educational loans and so on. "TNPSA is a statutory body under the government of Tamil Nadu, its selection process, board and governance is maintained under the State Government. It is also abided by the laws related to education.", he said.

Apart from the laws related to education, he spoke on Marriage Act. He said that Marriage, divorce, adoption and inheritance are some of the laws that differs from one religion to another. However, the compulsory registration of marriage is applicable to every citizen irrespective of the religion they belong. He also said about Muslim Law of Marriage, divorce and inheritance, it varies at a greater scale from other religions. The rights on inheritance of properties is one of the aspect in which Muslim Laws differ, he said. According to Sharia Laws, one-third of the properties should be given to a person's daughters and its two-third is meant for the sons. The reason for this variation based on gender is due to the existence of Mahar system, in which the bride groom has to offer an amount or gold in return for the marriage. Moreover, the sons should also spend on the marriages of his sisters.

Mr. T. Panneer Selvam stressed on the Consumer Protection Act (1986), Information Technology Act (2000) and Legal Services Act (1987). He quoted that ignorance of law is not an excuse. That is the reason why every individual must be aware of the laws that we need to oblige.

The Legal services Authority is categorised as a federal system. It ranges from National Legal Services Authority, State Legal Services Authority, District Legal Services Authority and Taluk level authority. The services rendered by the district level authority includes legal aid services such as Sitting Council, mediation and LokAdalat.

Mr. P. Uma Shankar elucidated on how laws protect and rationalise the society and its people. He said that the reason for the uncontrolled activities of criminals is due to the fact that people are scared even to enter into police station to file a complaint. The criminals, hence, take an advantage and commit crimes endlessly.

He cited an example of Banwari Devi from Rajasthan who sacrificed her life to protect women's rights. It was after her death, that the law of protection of Women at workplace was amended. Conclusively, he said that learning is not the only purpose of going to a school or college, the real goal should be to promote and propagate the basic laws and its importance to people of all community.

- ✓ Concept and Definition of Etiquette.
- ✓ symbolic interpretations for body language
- ✓ BL words interpretation.

Facial expressions are crucial in your repertoire of body language. No other part of your body can convey the immense richness of nonverbal communication that your face does. With almost infinite symbolic interpretations for body language, no wonder people are nervous about it! Your best bet is to know about some of the body-language pits you can fall into and how to avoid them. Body language is like any other language in the world... it's made up of words - BL words are interpreted by "gestures, postures, facial expressions, eye movements". We send and interpret these signals almost entirely subconsciously, hence the need to be able to recognize them and adapt accordingly.

OUTCOME:

- ✓ Students came to know the important features of Body Language
- ✓ Impact of this session insisted many changes among students
- ✓ This session helped them and motivated them to be professional.
