Report:

In order to promote road safety and reduce accidents, an online meet was organised by Part V activities of Fatima College. The program started with a welcome note by Dr. S. Anburani, NSS Program officer. She also introduced the chief guest, Mrs. U. Paulthai, Inspector of Police, Madurai. She spoke on the importance of road safety. She listed eight points that had to be followed in order to save a life. She further insisted that the driver and the pillion rider have to wear a helmet at all costs. She then stated the importance of wearing seat belts to save one from getting 40 times injuries during accidents. The participants gained knowledge on blind spots. The importance on getting driving licence, insurance for the vehicle was yet another point. Drunk and drive is a strictly offensive act and punishable before court, she said. She also explained that over speeding and bike racing has a separate entertainment spot which are done with safety accessories and strictly forbidden in normal roads and it should not be performed by untrained civilians. She finished her talk saying that though there are lot of efforts taken by government to safeguard the people from accidents, only when people realize and follow the rules it will be effective as one hand makes no sound. Dr. S. A. Suja, Staff Coordinator of Women Empowerment Cell of Fatima College, thanked the gathering.
