REPORT

Over the past several decades civic engagement and global citizenship have become increasingly popular goals in higher education. International Service learning is a popular way to facilitate students' growth in the cross – cultural learning and civic engagement. Considering a shift from local service-learning to global service-learning as the need of the hour in this pandemic period, Fatima College organised a 5 – day international conference on Global Service Learning for the students and academicians globally from July 29 to August 2, 2020 at 6.30 pm in Language Lab – II, Fatima College to explore the possible differences that may exist between the students' experiences of international and domestic service – learning programs through their period of study. This platform further enhances the student who participate in the community engagement reflects on the experience in such a way as to gain further understanding of course content, a deeper understanding of global and intercultural issues, a broader appreciation of its nuances and discipline and an enhanced sense of their own responsibilities as citizen locally and globally which pave a way eventually to transform communities in need through sustainability.

A committee with the following members was formed:

Dr. Sr.M.Francisca Flora, Secretary, Fatima College- Patron

Dr.Sr.Celine Sahaya Mary, Principal, Fatima College - Patron

Dr.Sr.Bindu Antony, Vice Principal, (Shift – I)

Dr. S.J.Kala, Dean of Academic Affairs (Arts)

Dr.N.Malathi, Dean of Academic Affairs (Science)

Ms.A.Mable Jasmine Shobha, Dean of Academic Affairs (SF)

And Ms. Selvarani Head, Department of BCA

The committee took efforts to find out the right resource persons.

Dr.Kyle David Anderson, Senior Director of Global Engagement, Global Learning, Clemson University, South Carolina, USA.

Dr.Diane Perpich, Associate Professor of Philosophy, College of Architecture Arts & Humanities, Department of Philosophy & Religion, Clemson University, South Carolina, USA.

Ms.Phinu Jose, Former Director, Centre of Social Action (CSA), Christ (Deemed to be University), Bangalore

Dr.R.Balasubramaniam, Leadership Trainer & Coach, Development Activist, Author,

Founder, SVYM, Founder & Chairman, GRAAM, Visiting Professor, IIT, Delhi, Visiting Professor, Cornell University, USA magnanimously accepted the invitation.

Day: 1

Dr. S.J.Kala, Dean of Academic Affairs(Arts) was the host of the day. Rev Dr.Sr.Celine Sahaya Mary, Principal, Fatima College welcomed the resource person and the participants. The session was felicitated by Rev. Dr.Sr.Francisca Flora, Secretary, Fatima College.

A video about Fatima College was played and the resource person on the day Dr.Kyle David Anderson was much impressed with the performance of Fatima. He spoke on the topic: “Global Service Learning as a Catalyst of Social Change”. He explained the meaning of Global learning and global service learning. He highlighted that Global service learning is built upon the traditions of global learning and how it is used to understand the importance of Global Service Learning in the current scenario and also rising rapidly. The main reason for Fatima College to conduct an international conference on Global Service Learning is that the students need to get exposure to various communities at Global level. This was well comprehended by our speaker. He insisted on setting up many more virtual pathways where everyone could get together and work with the community partners to find solution for local problems.

Day: 2

The session on “The Indelible Imprints of Reach Out to Society through Action (ROSA)” was hosted by Dr. N. Malathi, Dean of Academic Affairs(Science). Sr. Arul Vinnarasi, Director, ROSA, Fatima college welcomed the gathering.

Dr. M. Ragam, Assistant Professor of Physics, Dr. J. Asnet Mary Assistant Professor of Zoology, and Dr. B. Vinosha, Assistant Professor of Chemistry highlighted the objectives of ROSA which was to sensitize the students to the pressing needs of the local community and to enable them to contribute to its development. They explained how the students and villagers were prompted to develop eco – consciousness and to empower the village in environmental, Social and economic aspects. The participants were informed about the ways in which the 1st& 2nd year Under Graduates also extend their support to villages through various Part V activities under the umbrella of ROSA which were aimed at nation building through community development.

Day: 3

Dr. S.J. Kala, Dean of Academic Affairs (Arts) was the host of the day. The speaker who enlightened the audience that day was Dr. Diane Perpich and he spoke about “Global Service Learning: Challenges and Strategies Adopted”. Dr. Diane explained how service learning is done and implemented in Clemson University. She briefly explained about their program in women leadership in Clemson University and then she went ahead with how they collaborate and work with SEVA the organisation in India.

Apart from Dr. Diane, Mr. Joseph Stephen, Senior Coordinator, Extension Department of SHEPHERD, St. Joseph's College, Trichy briefed the audience about activities done through the program called SHEPHERD.

Day: 4

Ms. A.Mable Jasmine Shobha, Dean of Academic Affairs (SF) was the host of the day. Ms. Phinu Jose the speaker of the day spoke on the topic “Global Service - Learning for Global Service - Learning” and shared her experience of being a service-learning student. Participants were eager to know more and many questions were asked. Among the few queries asked, one was “How do you manage to educate hyper active village children who are keen to use mobile phone and play around rather than attending the class/ school?” To which she replied that the model created to educate these children was acquired after realizing that the teachers involved in these service learning were never to be forced in doing the work, but were expected to do out of sheer joy in educating and empowering the children and only then, a connect could be formed between the teacher and students.

Day:5

The host for the day was Dr.Sr. Bindu Antony, Vice Principal, Fatima College. Sr. Arul Vinnarasi, Director, ROSA, Fatima college welcomed everyone for the session. The day was presided by Dr.R.Balasubramaniam and he shared his expertise on “Global Service Learning: Strategies and Scope for Global Partnership”. The key learning's from his session were on the best practices adopted for Global Service learning outside India. Focus was more towards making the students understand that how do we work in making the world a better place to live in and making them to realise the larger picture of doing good is necessary.

He clarified the queries like: How to bridge the gap between classroom learning and community service learning? He answered to it saying that one should first understand the central idea is learning in any medium and the dimensions are different through which learning takes place. Further clarified that could also explain the process of hierarchical learning and the distribution of the expertise model.

The 5-Day international conference on Global Service Learning-2020 was successful in educating many across the globe and the College is looking forward to implementing the same in the coming years to make the world a better place to live in.
