MEDITATION IN ACTION MOVEMENT (MAM)

MEDITATION IN ACTION MOVEMENT REPORT-2020-2021

International Yoga Day – 21.06.2020

Yoga and Meditation clears the clutter in thoughts to attain inner peace. Realizing this, in Fatima College, many students practice yoga regularly. Since it's a lock down period, On June 21st 2020, International Yoga Day, students performed Yoga at their homes and were also engaged in creating posters and writing essays on "Yoga and Meditation for countering pandemic anxiety". This reflects the awareness of young minds in identifying the need for yoga and meditation for the current day crisis. Prize winners on these competitions are:

YOGA & MEDITATION FOR COUNTERING PANDEMIC ANXIETY

Due to the pandemic, the daily routines of thousands have been affected and this has created tension among people. Students from different family backgrounds search for ways to stay calm during this challenging times. Understanding this need, Fatima College takes sincere efforts to help students to live, less stressed through performing yoga and meditation. So, On 15th October 2020 all undergraduate students were trained to do yoga and meditation, through online performance by their senior core group members of yoga and meditation. This created a positive impact by reducing anxiety, frustration and fear among youth and tried to bring hope in their life.

On 22nd October all I Undergraduate students were trained to do yoga and meditation online.
