Identifying the Employability Skill gap

Bridging the Employability Skill gap by yourself

Significance of the Emotional Quadrant during the Interview

All the students who will be pursuing their 3rd year UG and 2nd year P.G. were trained by the placement officer .The training session focused on how to face the interview . In those training sessions students were taught how to prepare their CV and how to introduce themselves and how to generate ideas at the time of GD and how to answer the questions asked in the interview. And they were aware of the significance of speaking, reading, listening, and writing and the significance of the Emotional Quotient during the interview . Above all they were thought how to assess themselves. In the process of self assessment they know how to plan their career and how to enhance their employability skills.

In Fatima College (Autonomous) all the students are highly involved in training .It is possible because of the constant and continuous motivation and careful monitoring by the Management.
