Webinar : Money management and career opportunities post covid scenario

Sponsored by : Bombay Stock Exchange (BSE)

Seminar date : 12-4-2021

Time : 3pm

Speaker : Mr.Suhas Rajput

Number of participants . 54

Financial impact Due to pandemic caused job loss reduce the salary incomes and made the situation uncertain. This made the investors to seek safety and wealth preservation and how to manage with money and to seek the job opportunities. It gave an opportunity to the students how to have the money management and career opportunities after the covid period.

This session helped the students to tempt their interest in creating a financial plan and have a check on their current investments which has gained importance. It made the students to enquire about The strategies of money conservations and how to find career opportunities which will long last for their life. Students learned how to solve a problem and how to be a good critical thinker which are the top soft skills the candidates lacks. The most important and the interesting topic wash how to manage with money post covid scenarios as a woman child everyone will focus on money conservation and money management during this period. It made us to think before we spend the money for that particular purpose, we ourselves asked the questions why is this necessary and what is the need to invest in that particular Thing and we learn how to manage the situation with the money which we have.

Instead of struggling to retain our status now it has acknowledged the new realities and the carriers that are thriving during the pandemic or because of it. It will be implemented by practicing the following habits like learning new skills and reducing our expenses and have the control of over using time, applying to multiple jobs outside our current demand, preparing for personal budget. The job market always changes after a major crisis this time the change is an increased focus on online technology and digital skills. so we learn about those skills to enrich ourselves.
