Invitation (Back)

A One-Day State level Workshop on “Translation: A Road Map to Reflection and Re-Formation” started with a prayer song by the department choir. Mrs. P. Sumedha, Head and Assistant Professor, Department of English (SF) welcomed the gathering. Dr. Sr. Bindhu Antony, Vice Principal (Shift I), Fatima College, gave the inaugural address. Dr. A. Roselin Mary, Associate Professor and Head, PG and Research Department of English, Fatima College, Madurai, felicitated the chief guest of the first session, Dr. M. Elangovan, with a memento. Around 283 students participated in the workshop.

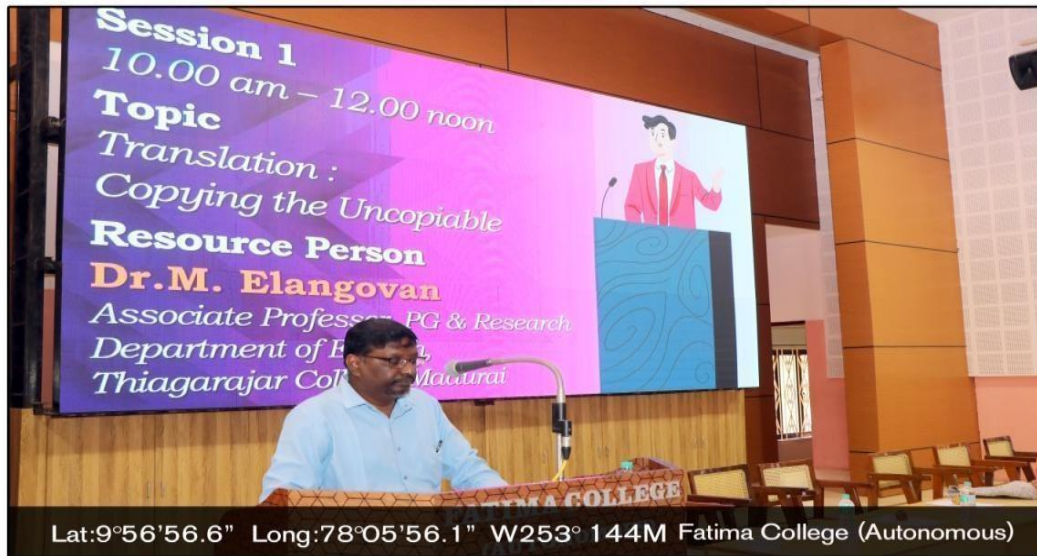

The first session titled “Translation: Copying the Uncopiable” by Dr.M.Elangovan focused on the characteristics of translation and its nuances. He further gave an insightful session on the difficulties involved in the translation, which further enriched the knowledge of students on the art of translation. It was followed by an activity and all the students actively participated in the activity and later, the first session came to an end with Q&A session. Mrs. P. Eunice, Assistant professor, English (SF) introduced the Chief Guest for the second session, Dr.N. Shanti, who gave an intriguing session on the topic “Politics of Translation: The ‘How’ and the ‘Why’”. It was a very pragmatic and fun-filled session for the students, as they were asked to translate certain lines of the poem. Most of the students attempted the translation and presented their work of translation before other participants. After the second session, Dr. Sr. G. Jenita Rani, Vice Principal (Shift II), Fatima College, gave the valedictory address. The certificates were distributed to the participants during the valediction. The workshop came to an end with singing the national anthem.
