The Students presented the following grievances:

- * Students had the opportunity to attend both online and offline classes during the odd Semester. The representatives from all the departments/major requested to extend the study holidays before appearing for examination in offline mode.
- * Due to lockdown students expressed their inability to pay the fees on time. Some economically poor students and sports students requested for fees concession and scholarship.

After listening to Students' grievances during pandemic situation Dr. Dr. G. Celine Sahaya Mary, Principal addressed the students and the following redressal measures were taken:

- * Study holidays will be extended to students for one week which will enhance the psychological health of the students. Motivated the students to prepare well for the end semester examination.
- * Students were given more time to pay the fees. College Management also helped the deserving students in paying the fees as well as encouraged the students to apply for scholarship.

The meeting came to an end with the utterance of gratitude by president of Students' Union Shift - I.
