Azadi Ka Amrut Mahostav

Elocution Competition - Report
28.02.2022

Topic: "Role of Madurai in India's Freedom Struggle" - "இந்திய சுதந்திரப் போராட்டத்தில் மதுரையின் பங்கு"

Fatima College, Madurai organized an elocution competition for students in both English and Tamil as part of Azadi Ka Amrut Mahostav under which various competitions are organized for students to commemorate the 75th anniversary of India's Independence. The elocution competitions in Fatima college were organized on 28 February 2022 on the topic "Role of Madurai in India's Freedom Struggle" - "இந்திய சுதந்திரப் போராட்டத்தில் மதுரையின் பங்கு". Students actively participated in the competitions and presented wonderful overviews of the contributions of Madurai to India's Freedom. Students who were already familiar with National leaders were provided with a chance to look up details about freedom fighters from their soil. This imbibed in them a sense of pride and revived their patriotism and love for their motherland. 14 students participated in the English elocution and 9 in the Tamil competition. Ms. M Shivshakti Manikarnika (2020LB65) of II BA English (SF) won the first prize in the English elocution. Ms. A Gracema (2020L24) of II BA English (R) won the second prize and Ms. N Andal (2019T03) of III BA Tamil secured the third prize. In Tamil elocution, A Shyamala Devi of II B.Com won the first prize. Ms. M. Hepciba Margaret of II B. Com and M. Dhivyanjali of I BA Sociology won the second prize and the third prize respectively.
