LIBRARY PROMOTION

Rosa Mystica Library has encouraged the students to know the library resources through special exhibition conducted on special days. This promotion has attracted the user community to know more about the library resources.

The library has given the opportunity to the users to exhibit their own choices of the author or their impressed books in the library under the title Month of Display.

Guest Lectures were arranged during the lib fest. The library has been conducting various competitions that helped them to showcase their talents in library fest.

Book fest had been arranged by the library to inculcate the reading habit among the student and staff community.

Library orientation programme is arranged every semester for the users.
