Report

Key Points Highlighted:

- How to set goals?
- How smart phone will become addiction?
- How to see the life as beautiful thing?

The presenter who himself is a source of motivation gave students some encouraging examples from his own life and inspired students to be a self-motivator. He discussed about the importance of positive thinking and attitude which brings optimism into life and such constructive changes can make one brighter and more successful. He motivated the students to excel in study and career. He shared that Goals are like road maps. Goals provide the direction to reach the destination, the motivation to sustain on the trip, and a way to measure the progress. The best way to get results is to plan for the future, but live one day at a time. The smart phone addiction may result in unwanted consequences on their academic performance and psychological health. He also conducted few games to make students learn some life messages. He also Discussed about how fear ruins things. It also discloses that beyond fear was the most blissful experience of his life, and how that principle can be applied to anything in life.
