Resource Person/s : Ms. J. R. Annie Abinaya, Attorney, Chamber No.31, Madurai Bench of Madras High Court and Fr. Annaraj SJ, AICUF coordinator

No. of Participants : 60

Focus on : SKILL Development

On 23 February 2023, AICUF coordinators of Shift I & II organized a guest lecture on Indian Constitution & Human Rights. The event started with a prayer song followed by welcoming the guests of the occasion. Ms. J. R. Annie Abinaya, Attorney, Chamber No.31, Madurai Bench of Madras High Court and Fr. Annaraj SJ, AICUF coordinator enlightened the day with their innate ideas about our constitution and articles in general for the students. She addressed the students that the Indian Constitution is the supreme law of India. It shadows a framework of the fundamental duties and rights to be followed by the citizens. She gave an insight into the amendments and articles in it. She stressed Article 15 that there shouldn't be any discrimination against any citizen on any grounds of caste, religion, sex, work, birthplace, etc. She highlighted the articles that focus on education, women's rights and ways to protect oneself from any harness in the workplace. She even quoted a few incidents related to the above-mentioned, motivating the students to overcome the hardships in a smart way. She appreciated the students who raised questions & clarified their queries. Fr. Annaraj guided the students on specific fundamental rights to exercise in our daily life. Finally, he insisted the students acquire learning more about the legal system and shine with
