Report

PG Department of History, Fatima College (Autonomous), Madurai organized endowment Lecture on Museum: A pact of Sustainable development.

Our respectful chief guest DR M.Marudhu Pandian address the gathering about Museum is a non- profitable organisation. The museum objects reflects lot of information. It have more responsibility to provide exact history to the common people. Every land have unique features in Tamil Nadu. Madurai kanji gives information that Cholas lived in Madurai for Three Hundred years. He said that Tamil Archaeological Department and Madurai Archaeological Department is searching for the History of Pandyas and Cholas. Tamil Nadu was blessed with numerous bronze status. Museums are having more precious findings. Unique culture was prevailing for every districts in Tamil Nadu. A duty of every Museum is to conduct exhibition. So that they can they can create awareness among the public.

The Museum should give permission to the public to touch the objects and learn. If the is damaged means they can use the model of the object . So that museum can get the support of the public. Finally he concluded that hence Museum is the non - profitable organisation Government is not allotted money for the preservation process. Young generation should come forward to preserve our nation's culture.
