Academy, Madurai.

TOPIC : Group discussion & Presentation Etiquettes

The session, students were tasked with introducing themselves based on the previous class discussions. One by one, they embarked on their self-introductions, drawing from the insights gained in the initial session. Following this, the class was divided into five groups for a structured group discussion. Each group was assigned a specific topic to dissect and debate. As the discussions unfolded, students raised numerous queries and uncertainties, yet through collaborative efforts within their respective groups, all doubts were effectively addressed and resolved. This dynamic exchange facilitated a rich learning experience, fostering both individual growth and collective understanding.
