said that the Constitution was framed and enforced on 26th Jan 1950 by Dr. B. R. Ambedkar. From the very same date, the citizens of India were granted the 'Right to Suffrage'. Sarojini Naidu, the Nightingale of India had fought for women to attain equal rights in voting. Thus, the students were advised to be mindful of who they vote. Single vote has the power to The freebies offered by a candidate must never be considered while voting. It is the person's ability that really matters in leadership.

The different Constitutional Powers were also spoken about by the Chief Guest such as the executive and Judiciary powers. The difference between Lok Sabha election and Legislative Assembly election was elucidated. The Chief Guest illuminated even the importance of a Gram Sabha Election.

Her erudite talk came to an end after the power of a single vote was illustrated. Dr. Poornima urged everyone to apply for Voters' ID and exercise their franchise.
