The grand event took place in the renowned Jubilee Hall of Fatima College. The event was presided by Rev. Dr. Sr. M. Fransisca Flora, the esteemed Secretary of Fatima College. To add more vibrancy to this session, an illustrious panel of chief guests enlightened the students. The chief guests were Dr. Monika Rana (IAS), Dr. Kumar (IPS), Tmt. R. D. Shalini and Mr. M. Boominathan. This was an event of great importance as it was aimed at spreading awareness about the UPSC and TNPSC exams.

After receiving the blessings of the Almighty with a short prayer song, the session began. Ms. Kamali Muthu from II B.A. Journalism and Mass Communication compered the session. The program had a great start with the Secretary, Rev. Dr. Sr. M. Fransisca Flora who adorned the stage and left an everlasting impression on the students with her awe-inspiring words.

Followed by her, the dais was further lit into an energy of intense passion by Tmt. R. D. Shalini, Revenue Divisional Officer, and Sub Divisional Magistrate, Madurai. Her anecdotes spread waves of laughter and tons of wisdom. Her words of inspiration fostered a competitive spirit among the students to plan their future more meticulously.

The stage was also donned by Tmt. Dr. Monika Rana, IAS, Additional Collector (D) / Project Director, District Rural Developer Agency, Madurai. Dr. Monika is an excellent orator and a very efficient motivator. Her humble words that carried the reality of the present and the value of future brightened the students' minds and offered them a vivid pathway to achieve their dreams. She also shared her life struggles and achievements to further inspire the young audience.

As the dignitaries made their remarkable speeches, Mr. M. Boominathan, Founder and Director of Kingmakers IAS Academy, stepped up to lead all the students with ease. His captivating thoughts and generous intention to spread knowledge was evident in his words. His vivid aims were spoken loud out in an energetic manner that boosted up the spirits of the students. He gave a brief overview about the Kingmakers Academy and the various accolades. He also mentioned a few students who have emerged victorious after studying at the Kingmakers Academy. This served as a catalyst in grabbing the students' attention. The already enthusiastic talk of his was accompanied by fast beat background music, attention grabbing videos and colour-rich presentations. These paved the way for cent percent attention as the accolades of the Academy were then presented. After his elaborate explanations, Mr. M. Boominathan patiently listened on to the queries raised by the students and answered them with great sincerity. This session made it possible for the students to listen to great personalities and to acquire more awareness about UPSC and TNPSC exams.

All the first and second year students of the college stood witness to the magnificent event with their patient listening and enthusiasm. A glow of wisdom was etched on the faces of the Mary Land Students at the end of the session which vividly reflected the success of the programme in inspiring the audience.
