possess the skills of fast adaptability, tech savviness and the intuitive knowledge. In order to place this work force into fruitful and long term missions, improvement of their employability and entrepreneurial skills is required high time. On this outlook, to impart entrepreneurial skills, the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) & Reach Out to Society through Action (ROSA) organized the Skill Training Program on 30th September, 2023.

Dr. R. Angel, Coordinator, ROSA delivered the importance of women employment and entrepreneurship, and briefed about the skill training session, She emphasized that the students trained through the session, would take it forward to the women of respective villages. She acknowledged the efforts of Dr. K. Rosemary Euphrasia, Coordinator of IQAC, and the extension staff members and the welcomed the gathering.

Dr. J. Thelma, introduced the preparation method of Thiripala Suranam, Thirikaduga Suranam, Aloe vera Oil, and Herbal bath powder. She encouraged switching to natural products rather than the artificial chemical products. Dr. J. Jone Celestina & Dr. J. Belinda Asha demonstrated the manufacturing of dark and white phenyl, washing powder and candle. They talked about the price comparison between the raw materials and finished goods, and how being entrepreneurs can benefit themselves and the society. Ms. Angel, explained and demonstrated the production of natural squashes, pickles and health mix. She talked about the reality of preservatives in food industry.

The students undergone the training session, in which they were provided with hands on experience. The students actively interacted with the resource persons and participated in the session. The students trained through the session
