About the CrackDQuant

Tata Consultancy Services (TCS) organized an extensive and intellectually stimulating event called "CrackDQuant" that spanned over 11 weeks. The competition focused on assessing and enhancing participants' verbal ability and logical reasoning skills, two vital components for success in various academic and professional fields. The primary objective of CrackDQuant was to evaluate participants' proficiency in verbal communication, including vocabulary, grammar, reading comprehension, and verbal reasoning. Additionally, the competition aimed to test participants' logical thinking abilities, which are essential for problem-solving and critical decision-making. The event was open to a diverse pool of participants, including students, professionals, and enthusiasts with an interest in language and logical reasoning. By encouraging widespread participation, TCS sought to create an inclusive and vibrant learning environment where participants from different backgrounds could interact and learn from one another. Throughout the 11-week journey, participants faced a series of challenging quizzes and exercises designed to stretch their linguistic and logical faculties. Weekly assessments provided participants with feedback on their progress, allowing them to identify areas of improvement and fine-tune their skills accordingly. CrackDQuant maintained a dynamic leader board, continuously updated to reflect the top performers. The competitive element of the event motivated participants to push their limits and strive for excellence. As a global leader in IT and consulting, TCS demonstrated its commitment to nurturing talent and promoting skill development through this initiative. By combining verbal ability and logical reasoning, CrackDQuant aimed to equip participants with a well-rounded skill set that is valuable in both academic pursuits and professional endeavors. In conclusion, CrackDQuant served as a testament to TCS's dedication to fostering intellectual growth and preparing individuals to thrive in a rapidly evolving world. The event's impact extended far beyond the 11 weeks, inspiring participants to continue honing their verbal and logical abilities for future success.

TCS RunCode Quiz

About the Quiz

RunDcode is a quiz conducted by TCS (Tata Consultancy Services) that focuses on programming languages like C, C++, and Java. This interactive event aims to test participants' proficiency in coding, problem-solving skills, and algorithmic thinking. The competition typically comprises multiple questions, each designed to challenge participants at different difficulty levels. Participants are presented with a series of coding problems that cover various aspects of the programming languages, such as syntax, data structures, and algorithms. They are required to solve these problems within a specified time limit, fostering a sense of urgency and encouraging quick thinking. RunDcode not only evaluates the participants' technical abilities but also their ability to work under pressure and come up with efficient solutions to complex problems. It provides a platform for budding programmers to showcase their talent and learn from each other's approaches. Moreover, the competition often incorporates real-life scenarios, enabling participants to apply their coding skills to practical situations. The problems may include challenges from diverse domains like data analysis, software development, and computational mathematics. Through RunDcode, TCS aims to identify exceptional coding talents and potential future employees for their organization. The event serves as an excellent opportunity for participants to get noticed by one of the leading IT companies worldwide. In conclusion, RunDcode is a prestigious programming quiz conducted by TCS, offering participants a chance to exhibit their programming prowess and problem-solving acumen in C, C++, Java, and other programming languages. It promotes healthy competition, fosters learning, and provides a platform for aspiring programmers to showcase their skills on a larger stage.

Identifying the Employability Skill gap

Bridging the Employability Skill gap by yourself

Significance of the Emotional Quadrant during the Interview

All the students who will be pursuing their 3rd year UG and 2nd year P.G. were trained by the placement officer. The training session focused on how to face the interview. In those training sessions students were taught how to prepare their CV and how to introduce themselves and how to generate ideas at the time of GD and how to answer the questions asked in the interview. And they were aware of the significance of speaking, reading, listening, and writing and the significance of the Emotional Quotient during the interview. Above all they were thought how to assess themselves. In the process of self assessment they know how to plan their career and how to enhance their employability skills. In Fatima College (Autonomous) all the students are highly involved in training. It is possible because of the constant and continuous motivation and careful monitoring by the Management.

About the Pre-placement talk

The CISCO webinar on PRE – PLACEMENT TALK proved to be an invaluable experience for computer science students. Renowned experts and their interns showcased their expertise seamlessly during the one-day live session. Encompassing the company's vision, mission, and groundbreaking innovations, the webinar delved into the enriching life at CISCO and the myriad benefits available to employees. This immersive session provided deep insights into the company's operations and culture, aiding students in making informed career choices. The event not only expanded our understanding of CISCO but also inspired us to consider joining this dynamic and forward-thinking organization.

TECHNOLOGICAL SEGMENT:

DEPARTMENT OF MCA

CAREER GUIDANCE

The career guidance guest lecture focused on interview preparation and the art of acing interviews. It emphasized the importance of thorough research about the company, understanding its values and culture, and tailoring your responses accordingly. The significance of a well-structured resume and cover letter that highlights your skills and experiences was insisted. The lecture also touched upon the importance of dressing professionally and maintaining good body language, and how to follow up with a thank-you note post-interview. The career guidance extended beyond interviews, emphasizing lifelong learning, networking, and adaptability as essential for a successful career in today's dynamic job market.

REPORT:

The Department of MBA organized a guest lecture on the topic "Skills from Campus to Corporate" felicitated by the resource person Ms. James Sabelaa. A, Senior HR Recruitment Specialist, Wells Fargo – Randstad India Pvt. Ltd, Bangalore. The event was held at Sanjose seminar hall from 1:30 p.m to 2:30 p.m on July 28, 2023. Totally 175 students of I & II MBA participated in the event.

HIGHLIGHTS

"If anyone can do it, I can do it. If someone can't do it, then I should definitely finish it off!" That being said, Ms. James Sabeela opened her interactive session by denoting the skill sets which one should develop in this competitive era and highlighted the importance of effective utilization of platforms which are prevailing to explore and advance oneself in the corporate world. The speaker firmly advised the youth on the leverage of applying theoretical knowledge into practice, which is an important guide for thinking out of the box as expected by recruiters in case of uncertainties. She further highlighted that learning, applying, developing, improving and follow-up are the key aspects one should possess in order to develop any new skill at any point of time in their life. Citing examples from the management aspect, the speaker focussed on the basic techniques which an MBA graduate should have while developing one's profile, and gave pointers for building an outstanding resume and methods for surfing and arriving at the final output. The session ended with a question and answer segment where students eagerly raised questions pertaining to the general expectations of a HR, importance of having effective communication and interpersonal skills, etc. A feedback form from the speaker's end was circulated among the students. Vote of thanks was delivered to the speaker by Ms. Shuruthi of I MBA, for acquainting the students with a valuable session.

The seminar is highly beneficial as it sparks students' curiosity to solve diverse problems using analogies. It's a great way to make tricky problem-solving engaging and relatable. The event focuses on improving students' math abilities, helping them become more comfortable with numbers. It also hones their knack for addressing problems effectively. By teaching uncomplicated problem-solving techniques, the seminar equips students with practical tools for real-world challenges. Additionally, the seminar aids in forming a structured approach to solving problems within set time limits. This skill is invaluable for exams and daily life situations. Through discussions on various analogy types, students not only learn to recognize patterns but also learn how to apply similar thinking to unfamiliar problems. Overall, the seminar empowers students to approach problems with confidence, enhancing their overall cognitive skills and nurturing a problem-solving attitude that can be applied across subjects and contexts.

Topics discussed in shift I section are:

Number System

A number system is defined as a system of writing to express numbers. It is the mathematical notation for representing numbers of a given set by using digits or other symbols in a consistent manner. It provides a unique representation of every number and represents the arithmetic and algebraic structure of the figures.

Divisibility rule

A divisibility test is an easy way to identify whether the given number is divided by a fixed divisor without actually performing the division process. If a number is completely divided by another number, then the quotient should be a whole number and the remainder should be zero.

Work from Days

Work Done = Time Taken \times Rate of Work. Rate of Work = $1 / \text{Time Taken}$. Time Taken = $1 / \text{Rate of Work}$. If a piece of work is done in x number of days, then the work done in one day = $1/x$.

Ratio

A ratio is a relationship between two things when it is expressed in numbers or amounts. For example, if there are ten boys and thirty girls in a room, the ratio of boys to girls is 1:3, or one to three. In 1978 there were 884 students at a lecturer/student ratio of 1:15.

Combined work

Combined labor problems, or work problems, are math problems involving rational equations. These are equations that involve at least one fraction. The problems basically require finding unit rates, combining them, and setting them equal to an unknown rate. These problems require a lot of interpretive logic, but as long as you know how to work with fractions, solving them is fairly easy.

Series information

Letter series:

- In letter series, letters follow a definite order.
- May be single or may even comprise of two different series merged at alternate positions.
- The letters may be skipped or repeated or consecutive.

Number series:

- The relationship between the numbers may be, consecutive odd/even numbers, or prime numbers
- Sum/product/difference of preceeding numbers.

PRE-TALK FROM ZIFO R & D

The talk started with the hosted by Ms. Kirana Campus Recruitment team. from Zifo welcoming us. Session started at 3 PM with a question “What an expert means?”. She spoke about how approachable they are. Then she explained about the company’s purpose and activity – Drug Discovery (Biological agent or Molecules), they are working with the use of best biomolecule to reduce diseases. They have a scientific network and applications used in testing and research but they don’t work on laboratory but get information from and to. Zifo actually configures the information. They collaborate with clinical department where molecules are tested in humans and drugs are discovered. Zifo here works on application, processing and analysis. They handle technical things. She spoke about the Zifo’s history, as it started in 2008, the company if found by a group of friends. In 2010, they recognized as one of the top 10 emerging company and in 2012 they were the top growing sector. She said that they appreciate and encourage culture.

About work:

Individual growth related to Zifo is integrated to Zifo’s growth. They say they are impartially partial company since everyone have equal opportunity but people will be rewarded depending on their work. There will be a service agreement not like bond but 1 year of training will be given to new joiners and the 2nd year the person will work for them to compensate the training period hence it’s called as service agreement. They pay scale of INR 4,76,700 for PG and 4,25,200 for UG respectively, starts from the date of joining, salary hikes are above the market value. She said that people will work in open cabins and we can approach anybody for help within the area. They follow feedback forum where meetings will be held by the lead to casually talk about anything and everything. They have Golden week between Dec 25 to Jan 1 which is Christmas and New year holiday period that stands from 1 week without work. They have different programs, events, example; Biryani-day with DJ, Zifo family day, Zifo Kansha (Gratitude), Ethnic day (apart from special occasions).

About Placement:

1: Aptitude, Science and Essay writing tests

2: Interview

She also spoke about mock CBT exams that will be conducted on 10th and mains on 14th.

DEPARTMENT OF MCA

INTERVIEW SKILLS

The guest lecture on interview skills offered a comprehensive exploration of the art of effective communication, particularly during interviews. The lecture commenced with a strategic "Icebreaker," providing attendees with valuable insights into initiating and maintaining engaging conversations. It then delved into the intricacies of active listening and the art of keen observation, demonstrating their pivotal roles in understanding and responding to interview questions. The art of speaking was unveiled, emphasizing the importance of clarity, confidence, and assertiveness. Additionally, the concept of MTI (Mother Tongue Influence) was addressed, shedding light on common linguistic challenges faced during interviews. The lecture encouraged students to embrace authenticity as "The Art of Being Yourself" while underscoring the psychological barriers often encountered when speaking English. This holistic approach to interview skills equipped participants with a well-rounded understanding of not only what to say but also how to say it, fostering self-assurance and proficiency in effective communication, particularly in interviews. This knowledge empowered them to make informed choices about their clothing, aligning with the expectations of the professional world, thereby enhancing their readiness for successful interviews.

DAY 4 - Skill Enhancement II

DATE	:	22.02.2024
RESOURCE PERSON	:	Mr. A. Sathish Technical Head, Iyal Training Academy Madurai
TOPIC	:	Web site Creation using React

The first session was dedicated to React.js, aiming to familiarize participants with its fundamentals, coding practices, and necessary installations. It commenced with an overview of React.js, delving into its nature and coding principles. Detailed instructions were provided regarding the installation process of essential tools like Visual Studio Code and Node.js, crucial for React development. Additionally, the session covered the languages employed in React, elucidating their roles and purposes within the framework. Overall, participants gained insights into React.js, its tool chain, and the fundamental languages underpinning its functionality, setting a strong foundation for further exploration and application.

Next session was centred on the practical application of the instructions provided earlier. Students diligently installed Node.js and Visual Studio based on the morning session guidelines, encountering and subsequently resolving various installation issues. Through collaborative efforts and troubleshooting, all students successfully configured their development environments. Subsequently, they proceeded to program a simple application, building upon the foundational concepts introduced in the morning session. This hands-on experience not only reinforced the installation process but also provided practical exposure to programming basics, fostering a deeper understanding of the subject matter.

PLACEMENT WORKSHOP REPORT 2024

The session with Archana Rajesh, an esteemed alumna of our college, unfolded into a transformative experience that left a profound impact on all attendees. Her journey through the early days of the MCA program and her subsequent career struggles served as an inspiring backdrop, setting the stage for an insightful exploration of the challenges and opportunities within the MNC and IT industry. Through engaging activities, she deftly unveiled the intricacies of concentration and mental clarity, illuminating how our minds often betray us in moments of confusion. From exercises requiring precision to role-playing scenarios mirroring familial dynamics, participants gained firsthand understanding of the cognitive hurdles they must overcome to thrive professionally. The session culminated in a resounding call to action, urging students to embrace perseverance and unwavering determination in the pursuit of success. Her words resonated deeply, igniting a spark within each attendee to navigate the complexities of their chosen path with resilience and unwavering resolve.
