The Congregation of the Sister of St. Joseph was founded in le Puy, France, in 1650 by Jean pierre Medaille in response to the situation of war, famine, social injustice, etc. It was one of the first juridical congregations of women recognized as a religious apostolic congregation by Msgr Henri de Maupas, Bishop of Le Puy en Velay.

Father Jean-Pierre Medaille was born in Carcassonne on October 6, 1610. He entered the Society of Jesus at Toulouse on September 15, 1626 and was ordained in the year 1637. During his missionary endeavours at St. Flour in the central region of France, he had met 'a group of widows and women', not called to the cloister, but eager to be consecrated to God. The new sisters lived very simply in small communities without any distinguishing sign. They accepted any 'works of mercy, spiritual as well as corporal'. Fr. Medaille died December 30, 1669 at the college of Billom.

Mother Jeanne Fontbonne was born March 31, 1759, in Bas-en-Basset (haute-Loire), in a deeply Christian rural family. She was educated by the Sister of St. Joseph at Bas, then at Le Puy, receiving a solid formation. Mother Jeanne Fontbonne made her profession on October 14, 1779 and was elected superior in 1785 at the age of 26. It was then that the community suffered the effects of the Revolution and was dispersed. In 1808,

Mother St. John was called to form a group of sister in St. Etienne. While Mother St. John was Superior General, the Congregation of Lyons spread over 13 Departments (districts) of France, into Italy and across the sea. She spent her last years at the Mother House of the 'rue des Cheartreux' where 'her customary serenity and gentleness remained with her until her death' on November 22, 1843.

As Sister of St. Joseph of Lyons, we are present in different parts of the World having 205 houses. In India, Sisters are present both in the North and South hemisphere involved in various ministries. We reach out to the powerless children, youth and rural women and empower them with true dignity to be in the main stream of the society.
