The Congregation of the Sisters of St. Joseph was founded in le Puy, France, in 1650 by Fr. Jean Pierre Medaille in response to war, famine & Social injustice. It was one of the first juridical congregations of women recognized as a religious apostolic congregation by Msgr Henri de Maupas, Bishop of Le Puy en Valay

Father Jean-Pierre Medaille was born in Carcassonne on October 6, 1610. He entered the Society of Jesus on September 15, 1626 and was ordained in 1637. During his missionary endeavours at St. Flour he met a group of widows and women who were eager to be consecrated to God. The sisters lived a simple life in small communities. Fr. Madaille passed away on December 30, 1669 at the college of Billom.

Mother Jeanne Fontbonne was born on March 31, 1759, in Bas-en-Basset (haute-Loire), in a devout Christian rural family. Mother Fontbonne made her profession on October 14, 1779 and was elected superior in 1785. In 1808, Rev. Mother was called to form a group of sisters in St. Etienne. While Rev. Mother was Superior General, the Congregation of Lyons spread over 13 districts of France, into Italy and across the sea. She passed away on November 22, 1843.

Rev. Sr. Rose Benedict was born on 24th August 1898 in Leema, Canada. She became a member of the Congregation of the Sisters of St. Joseph of Lyons in 1913 and in 1924 came to India as a missionary. A Person with vision and daring to meet the challenges in life, she served the downtrodden with a compassionate heart. She passed away on 27th December 1967 of lung cancer which she contracted inhaling cement as she supervised the construction of Fatima College. In appreciation of her service to education and women empowerment, Madurai Kamaraj University honoured her by erecting her statue in the old University campus. The people of Madurai remembering her yeoman service conferred on her the title 'Man of Madurai'.

As Sisters of St. Joseph of Lyons, we are present in different parts of the World having 205 houses. In India, Sisters are present both in the North and South and involved in various ministries. We reach out to the children, youth and rural women and empower them with true dignity to be part of the mainstream
