- And about how to participate in group discussions effectively
- Through a mock interview they were taught about interview skills

Report:

The placement workshop was arranged for MCA & IT students on 6th October, 2017. The first session was focused on interview skills needed to get placed in a job and the participants were explained various opportunities in government sectors. The second session created an impact on improving their personality and the procedures that must be taken to improve the authority skills.

The first part of Session I was about strategies to crack Aptitude tests in Competitive Exams. The students were provided aptitude questions and were asked them to fill it out to get awareness about clearing the aptitude round. The ways of answering them quickly and the techniques required were explained to the students. The second part was about group discussion and about how to choose the topic when given a choice, what body language needs to be maintained in a group discussion and how to present opinions politely etc. The third part was about HR interview, where they arranged for a sample interview and let the students know about answering the HR questions to get good impression in the interview. The session concluded with the mentioning of diverse opportunities available in the government sectors.

In the second session, students got awareness about MNC companies who are offering high salary for freshers and what are all the skills needed to clear the interview in MNC companies. They also let the students to know about the certification when they go for a job. By 3.30 p.m the placement workshop came to an end.
