Report:

On 13th October 2018 a placement workshop was arranged for MCA & IT students. Placement workshop was conducted as two sessions. The I session the students were taught interview skills needed to get placed in a job and it also briefed them about the various opportunities in government sectors. During II session the students were provided with aptitude questions and were asked to answer them. This gave them tips to clear the aptitude round. The second part of the session was about group discussion and it covered about how to choose the topic when given a choice; what body language should be useful during a group discussion, how to present their opinion politely etc. The third part was about HR interview, and a mock interview was conducted and the students were given training on how they should answer the HR questions and crack the interview. The session concluded with the sharing of the knowledge about diverse opportunities available in the government sectors.

In the second session, students got awareness about MNC companies who are offering high salary for freshers. The students were informed about the certification when they go for a job.
