Report:

Block Chain Technology is the trending technology used for business transactions. This session helped the students to make a comparison between Block chain and Bit coin transactions. Students got information on the key elements of public, private and consortium block chains. They also understood the three pillars of BCT. As professionals they need to understand the interoperability of block chain projects, whether it could be on-chain or off-chain. As a result, they got knowledge sharing on the deterministic, terminable and isolated business functionality needs.
