

S.J. Kala
T. KalaiPriya

Prajwal Parajuly's Fiction Unboxed

 LAMBERT
Academic Publishing

Prajwal Parajuly (Born - 1984), a contemporary Indian Nepalese writer documents the strife undergone by the Nepalese to establish an identity and a land of their own in his fiction. This book is an attempt to bring to the fore the writer's skill in delineating the Gurkha society and the Gurkhas in his fiction, The Gurkha's Daughter and Land Where I Flee. It also unboxes his social and socio-psychological concerns towards the Gurkha society.

Dr. Kala S.J is an Associate Prof. at The Research Centre of English, Fatima College, Madurai. She presently serves as the Research Guide for M.Phil & Ph.D Scholars. Her research papers have appeared in many peer-reviewed Journals & as chapters in books at all levels. Her areas of interests- Canadian, Contemporary, Diasporic, ELT, Journalism & Hindi litt.

978-3-659-97335-2