Mrs. Nagalakshmi and Sr. Arul Mary went along with fifteen students to Achampatti on 8th February, 2016. Women of the village were gathered in the common hall of the panchayat office. Four students who have been trained by small industries product promotion organization (SIPPO), explained the various schemes that are available to the villagers by the government. The villagers were motivated to join the training programme. The students demonstrated the preparation of candles, detergent powder, phenyl and showed them the products which were prepared in their chemistry lab. The women were so much satisfied with the students and they were fully involved to learn more.

outcome: women of Achampatti village learnt the preparation of candles, detergent powder, and phenyl.
