Women's Cell Exhibition

“Creativity is contagious pass it on.”-Albert Einstein

Date : 22-12-2016

No of Participants : 50

One day exhibition was hosted by the students of Women's cell with the theme of women empowerment on December 22nd. The event was successful by its enthusiastic participants from all the Departments who were the members of women's cell. With an endeavor to promote a healthy attitude towards empowering women and to be proud of women who are successful this exhibition was conducted. The exhibition engaged the students and the teachers to synergies and motivate each other through the artistic works made by the students.

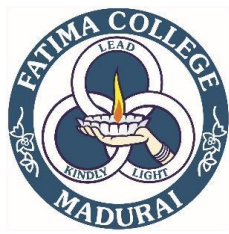

The works were made in an innovative way. It included: Charts, models, writings and pictures drawn by the students. The content of those artistic works were indeed the celebration of successful women and it depicted the hardships that women undergo in recent days. The predominant focus of this exhibition is to inspire the visitors through their art which holds a powerful message. Creativity abounded amidst the work displayed.

The works were displayed with a clear discipline in the smart room. Ms. Priyanka, the president with her team, made a lot of efforts to make this exhibition a useful one. She invited students and teachers from various Departments to visit the works done by the budding artists. Being immersed in the creative world, the students animatedly described their works to the visitors under the guidance of the teachers.

It was surprising to see various pieces of handwork with high standards. The exhibits looked attractive and thereby it was appreciated by the students and staff members of various departments. With the guidance of the staff in-charge namely, Ms. Charanya, Ms. Monica and Ms. Rajeswari the program was a success. Conclusively the students tied all the works around the trees in the campus with the hope that it would educate any student who passed by. Thus the exhibition was held to provide a platform for the students to display their talent for a good cause.

OUTCOME OF THIS ACTIVITY:

The predominant focus of this exhibition is to inspire the visitors and provoke their minds through their art which holds a powerful message for a social cause and social change.
