To give awareness about domestic violence and eve teasing we organized a program on 3rd august 2017.

Mr. M. Sheik Abdullah, Advocate at High Court and District Court addressed our Part V students.

The following are the few points highlighted from his speech.

Domestic violence: Violence against women is a serious problem in India. Overall, one-third of women aged between 15 - 49 have experienced physical violence and about 1 in 10 has experienced sexual violence. In total, 35% of women in India have experienced physical or sexual violence.

Domestic violence act in India: The Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act 2005 is an Act of the Parliament of India implemented to protect women from domestic violence. It was brought into force by the Indian government from 26 October 2006. The Act provides safety for women with a definition of "domestic violence", which includes not only physical violence, but also other forms of violence such as emotional/verbal, sexual, and economic abuse.

Eve teasing: The term eve teasing is referred as Sexual Assault or Sexual Harassment of women, verbally, or by making vulgar gestures or by winking, whistling or staring, in public places such as in streets, public transportation, park and many places of public meeting.

Eve teasing act in India: Section 294 of the Indian Penal Code, Section 354, Section 509 of the IPC and Section 354A protects women against sexual harassment.

OUTCOME: Students got awareness about domestic violence and eve teasing. They were motivated to face any challenges with the help of law.
