Name of the Activity : Children's day Celebration
Number of Beneficiaries : 198
Number of Students involved : 20
Date of the Activity : 21.11.2018

On November 21st, 20 students from 3rd year History went to Sambakulam Village to celebrate children's day. Our students went on a rally with placards to impart the importance of education. The students of the village also participated in this rally. Our students talked about children's education and cleanliness. We conducted skits about health and hygiene, and gave awareness to children to take the nutritious food. We also explain the benefits of healthy food. The children were advised not to take junk food like Parota, lays, Kurkure, noodles etc. The health hazards of the junk food was explained. Around 20 women from this village were assembled and were instructed about the various schemes introduced by our Prime Minister Narendra Modi for the benefit of rural upliftment. It is very helpful for the village women to know about the various new schemes undertaken by our Central Government. Finally our students demonstrated five methods of washing hands to avoid swine flu and instructed the people to avoid plastic.
