'ROLE OF CONSTITUTION IN WOMEN EMPOWERMENT'

DATE: 25-07-2019

TIME: 2.00PM- 4.00PM

VENUE: Fatima College, Madurai

RESOURCE PERSON: Sr. Amala, Advocate, Madras High Court, Madurai Bench

No of Participants: 25

The speaker was Sr. Amala, advocate, Madras High Court, Madurai Bench. She started her speech explaining the meaning of the word 'constitution'. She spoke about the injustices done to women in society and provided apt real-life incidents as examples. She further spoke about Article 14 which is about the citizens' equality before law and equal protection of law. She stressed that girls have to act responsibly and have to be wise in their actions and words. Her words, "Education should empower and liberate you to become an asset to the society" made a lasting impact on the students. She ended her speech urging the students to ponder about the changes they make in the life of others and oneself. The students expressed their gratitude to the guest speaker for her valuable and informative speech.

OUTCOME: The students learned their constitutional rights and duties thereby developing themselves as better citizens.
