Extension students of the Department of Chemistry visited Attachampatti Village (along with staff incharge Dr. R. Sarika) conducted Tuition on Basic English. English Reading and Handwriting practice were also given. The improvement in handwriting before and after practice was evaluated.

Objectives of visit

- To conduct tuition on Basic English to village children.
- To test their handwriting before and after proper practice and trained them to develop a good and clear handwriting.
- To make the children involved in coloring and drawing.

Observation

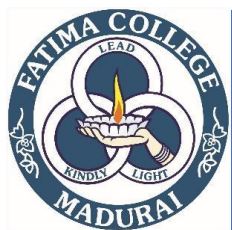

It was observed that the children started reading English faster after tutoring and their handwriting was more legible after practice.

Analysis

A small analysis was done on a few groups of children whether they are really showing interest and have a thirst for learning and writing Basic English. All showed a keen interest to learn and write good English.
