REPORT

Fatima College, Madurai organized Fine Arts 2018 on December 14 and 15, 2018. The two days program is organized every year to bring out the innate creativity in the students on a socially relevant topic. The students were asked to participate in various competitions on the theme “Back to Tradition”. 31 competitions on various performance arts and skill related arts like dance, drama, essay, poetry writing, mime, tableau, art from waste, rangoli, carols, group song, were conducted. The event began with an inauguration ceremony presided by Dr. G. Celine Sahaya Mary, Principal, Fatima College on 14.12.2018 at 9.00 a.m. The Principal motivated the students to be energetic and creative always and declared the day to begin. Followed by the inauguration all the competitions took place in different venues and the students of Fatima College exhibited their talents representing their respective departments.

Competitions like Turn Coat, Short Story, Verse Writing, Essay Writing, Mime, Folk Dances of Tamil Nadu, Group Dance, Vocal Solo Light, A cappella (Group Song), Fashion Parade, Poster Making, Cartooning, Collage, Pencil Drawing, Photography, Dumb Charade, Vegetable Carving, Art From Waste, Rangoli, Short film, Flower arrangement, Skit, College Song, Fatima Innovation Project were conducted on 14.12.2018.

Classical Dance, Christmas Carols, Freeze (Tableau) were conducted on the second day on 15.12.2018. The students brought forth the importance and value of the forgotten tradition that would bring back the past glory and peaceful life of our ancestors in today's busy world. The results of the various competitions were announced on 15.12.2018 followed by the valediction ceremony and prize distribution by Dr. R. P. Rajeswari, Dean, Srimad Andavar Arts and Science College, Trichy. Dr. R. P. Rajeswari contrasted traditional life to the modern life and advised the students to be eclectic in choosing the positive attributes of tradition and modern and lead a happy life.

The overall shield was won by the Research Centre of English. The Runners shield was shared by two departments Mathematics (Regular) and Physics. Various stalls with eatables, accessories, dresses and so on were put up. The students enjoyed participating in the competitions, tasting variety of foods and being the spectators of the various colourful events on and off the stage. The two days fest rekindled the spirits of Fatimites to revive the goodness of tradition and has discovered a new path towards tradition.

Research Centre of Home Science

About the Department

Fatima College (College with Potential for Excellence, Re-accredited with 'A' grade by NAAC -3rd cycle, 65th Rank in India ranking 2018 - NIRF by MHRD) is an Autonomous College affiliated to Madurai Kamaraj University. It is a minority institution established and run by St. Joseph's Society of Madurai (of the congregation for the sisters of St. Joseph of Lyons). The college renders its service with the vision of empowering women through quality education based on Christian values and the objective of giving priority to the rural and economically backward women of its surroundings.

The Dept. of Home Science is one of the pioneering Home Science departments down south, was established in 1961. Ever since its inception it has grown to higher heights rendering valuable service to the students community. To keep pace with current trend, in addition to the courses B.Sc., Home Science with Food Biotechnology, Advanced Diploma in Fashion Designing and Garment Construction, the Dept., made a big leap into M.Sc., Human Nutrition and Nutraceuticals under the UGC innovative programme. At present, the department has been upgraded into a Research Centre of Home Science. By offering these courses the department empowers women to become Entrepreneur and researchers in the field of Food and Nutrition.

REPORT ON NUTRIFEST – 2018

“NUTRIFEST-2018”, an intercollegiate meet was organized by the Research Centre of Home Science, Fatima College on September 24, 2018. This year's theme was “Better Nutrition – A Key to Future Health”. As many as 14 colleges from across the state actively registered for the competitions that were contrived based on the theme.

The day started with the inaugural function held at San Jose Seminar Hall. The chief guest for the function was S.Jayakumar, Additional Director of Rural Development (Retired), Chennai. The lamp was lighted by the chief guest and staff members of the department. The welcome address was given Dr.Vasantha Esther Rani, Head, Research Centre of Home Science who welcomed the gathering and honoured the chief guest with a memento. The inaugural address was delivered by the chief guest, S.Jeyakumar. He described on the importance of having nutritious food to lead a healthy life. His speech about traditional foods that were based on native, unrefined ingredients having a better effect on overall health of the body largely captivated the audience. He also spoke about the interesting relationship between food and astrology and how a food determines one's day-to-day activities.

This was followed by screening of the promotional video for ‘NUTRIFEST-2018’ and a cultural performance by the students.

The inaugural function ended with vote of thanks delivered by Mrs.Magdalene Virjini, Assistant Professor, Research Centre of Home Science.

After a rejuvenating snack break, competitions were conducted. The day long competitions held at different venues were:

1. Fireless Cooking
2. Nutrinux
3. Adact
4. Nutriquiz
5. Group Dance

Participants from various colleges took part in the competitions enthusiastically and performed diligently to win the prizes. The participants and students were then directed to a nutritious and enlivening lunch.

The final competition, Miss.Nutrifest, was conducted in Jubilee Hall. Finalists, who were selected after a preliminary assessment of nutritional status, presented themselves in prim and posh attire and answered the questions asked to them smartly.

After a brief refreshment break, the valediction programme was held. The chief guest for the function was ‘Millet Queen’ Krishnakumari Jeyakumar, Chef, Arokiya Unavu, Jaya TV. The programme started with prayer song.

The welcome address was given by Mrs. Josephine Jesintha, Assistant Professor, Research Centre of Home Science, who welcomed the gathering.

Dr.Vasantha Esther Rani detailed on the achievements of the department through the years and also described about the courses offered and various activities carried out by the department.

This was followed by Dr. Vasantha Esther Rani honouring the chief guest with a memento and Dr. Latha,Associate Professor, Research Centre of Home Science, honouring Rev.Sr.Fransisca Flora, Secretary, Fatima College, who also graced the occasion with her presence.

The felicitation address was delivered by Rev.Sr.Fransisca Flora, who prelected the gathering about the positive outcomes of conducting such intercollegiate meets. She also discoursed on the importance of healthy food that plays a pivotal role in maintaining a happy, disease free life. She also stressed on the vile complications arising due to consumption of fast foods and urged the students to choose their food wisely.

The felicitation address was succeeded by the valedictory address given by the chief guest Krishnakumari Jayakumar. She divulged on the importance of millets in one's daily diet that is essential for women's health and its role in preventing diabetes and obesity.

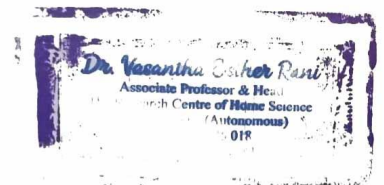

This was followed by the prize distribution. The chief guest gave away the prizes to the winners of the competitions and crowned the winner and runner-up of Miss.Nutrifest. Finally, she gave away the overall championship trophy to students of E.M.G Yadava College for Women, Madurai, who were leading the scoreboard.

The vote of thanks for the programme was given by Mrs.C.Helen, Assistant Professor, Research Centre of Home Science, who thanked all the participants for their active participation and the sponsors for their financial support. The day ended with National Anthem.
