REPORT OF THE SESSION

Rev. Fr. Arul Raj has worked in various positions for the common good of human society and had a strong bent of mind to shape and train a teacher's personality to launch into the world of challenges. He pointed out that teaching is profession to start doing, to continue doing, to take risk on, to enjoy doing and to preserve the essence of human values for the betterment of society. A teacher ought to be a Facilitator, Assessor, Role model, Planner, Information provider and a Resource developer.

A teacher's personality affects a teacher. Social, organizational and political environment affects the educator. Liberal and transformative approach are the tools to handle to bring about the change. The charismatic power within a teacher spreads a sense of self-worth and authenticity of self. Through colourful slides and anecdotes Father elaborated on the Effective and Ineffective, Teacher –centered and student – centered teaching styles. An excellent teacher never “settles down “but is curious to look beyond.

Being a Facilitator, a teacher gives the student self-direction in learning. He concluded with a motivational statement “One teacher can change the world”.
