Principal Investigator, Major Research Project Department Of English, Fatima College (Autonomous) Tiruvallur, Madurai- 625 018, Tamil Nadu	Date: September 27, 2007

We are glad to receive your enquiry for the JAWS Software and OpenBook software.

JAWS converts a normal PC into a Talking PC to enable a blind person to operate the computer independently and also to give training in computers to the blind.

OpenBook software converts the PC+ Scanner combination into a scanning & reading machine, which enables the blind to read all printed text independently.

Our company is the Sole Distributor for India for the manufacturer of these software i.e. Freedom Scientific Inc., USA and are enclosing the certificate to this effect for your immediate reference.

As requested, we are pleased to quote for the above 2 software.
