ABOUT FATIMA COLLEGE

Fatima College, Madurai, established 71 years ago by Sr. Rose Benedicte and managed by the Sisters of St. Joseph's Society, is a premier Catholic minority institution affiliated with Madurai Kamaraj University. Guided by over seven decades of educational excellence, the college imparts value-based, holistic education to empower young women, focusing on rural, economically backward, and first-generation learners.

ABOUT ROSA MYSTICA LIBRARY

Spanning 22,436 sq. ft., the Rosa Mystica Library at Fatima College, Madurai, serves as a state-of-the-art academic hub dedicated to research and women's empowerment. It holds over 1,36,000 volumes and offers remote access to premier e-resources like JSTOR, J-Gate, and DELNET. The library also provides visually-assisted e-resources and accessible facilities tailored for differently-abled scholars.

ABOUT MADRAS LIBRARY ASSOCIATION - MALA

The Madras Library Association (MALA) pioneered India's library movement through mobile services, training programs, and legislative advocacy. In 1929, it established landmark training that evolved into India's first degree courses in library science. MALA published Dr. S. R. Ranganathan's foundational texts and spearheaded the historic Madras Public Libraries Act of 1948, the country's first library legislation.

ABOUT PROGRAMME

In line with Fatima College's commitment to academic rigor and career empowerment, this 7-Day National Webinar is designed to guide aspiring Assistant Professors and Research Scholars through the UGC NET / SET General Paper I examination.
